Improvement of 2 Tracts to be Aired at Hearing

City council Tuesday evening accepted a petition for Assessment District No. 15, installation of sanitary sewers in a portion of Desert Tract, and Vista del Cielo, and directed Public Works Director Frank Hammerschlag to proceed with preparation of plans and specifications.

The petition was signed by 65.5 percent of the property owners in the area.

The area will require a pumping station, and council, acting on recommendations of City Manager R. W. Peterson and Hammerschlag, agreed that the station should be of sufficient size to service development there for the next five years. Cost of the station will be pro-rated to present and eventual users during that time.

PLANS FOR THIS summer call for extension of lines into Lurline Sands, Desert Palms Estates, subdivision development by the airport, Via Escuela and adjacent areas, and revision of lines in the northeast section between Alejo road and the Palm Springs Ranch Club to provide a better signal.

In addition, 11 miles of main lines will be placed underground, and a mid-point control station will be installed on the main line which will give a more constant and better signal for all channels.

PRESENT PLANNING also indicates that service may be extended past the Veterans Tract in the Quipost Estates area, Waltz said.

The manager also told of the corporation becoming a "strictly local operation" as of May 15, with it being operated as a separate corporation. Accounting, bookkeeping and all other operations will be handled locally, he said.

At the present time, 14 persons are employed on a permanent basis by Palm Springs Community Television.

Change Planned at Police Station

Alteration of the front office of the Palm Springs police department at a cost of $400, to offer better service, was approved by city council Tuesday evening.

Purchase of additional office equipment at a cost of $400 was also authorized.

Police Chief August G. Kettmann, in requesting the action, said that the increase in pedestrian traffic, radio contact, and booking of prisoners made the present arrangement outdated. One person can no longer handle all three details, besides the telephone, Kettmann said. Increased space will permit departmentalizing of the duties, he added.

Insult Added to Injury in Accident North of Village

A motorist escaped injury in an accident Sunday, but still required emergency treatment at Desert hospital. Local authorities were notified of the incident by attending doctors when Bernard Winton Gammon, Anaheim, appeared for treatment of an eye injury which required stitches. Gammon's car was involved in a minor accident on Highway 99, between Thousand Palms and Garnet, and both vehicles stopped. The other driver refused to show his operator's license, and to emphasize his point, struck Gammon in the eye.

Palm Springs police immediately sent out an all-points bulletin, but it was unsuccessful.

2 False Alarms, Fire and Police

Two false alarms in one night—the same case—but involving both the police and fire departments.

A call of a car fire in the 1100 block of North Indian avenue came in to Fire Station No. 1 at 11:43 p.m., Tuesday. It developed that an over-excited person had misunderstood a motorist, and the car was stolen instead of on fire.

Police at the scene then started checking and found that the motorist had merely misplaced the car, locating it at the corner of Tachevah drive and Indian avenue.

Students Feted at Elks' Dinner

Elks Lodge, BPOE, 1905, Sunday evening honored 10 Palm Springs high school students, the four winners and six runners-up in its Leadership and Scholarship contest, and their parents at a dinner meeting at the clubhouse.

Winners in the contest were: Constance Cornelius and William Manger, Jr., Leadership; Ruth Micelli and Richard Bigham, Scholarship. They will now go on to compete in the district contest, and if successful there, in the area and national events.

Winners were named in cooperation with school officials. Dr. Charles Baldwin was in charge of the dinner meeting and awards.

Three public hearings on change of zone applications were set by city council Tuesday evening for 8:30 p.m., Tuesday, June 7.

The changes had been requested for: Desert Park Estates, Section 1; Twin Palms Estates, Section 26, and Summer Estates, Section 13.

Mayor Florian Boyd commented that change of zone hearings were not conducted during the summer months, but City Attorney Jerry Bunker and Councilman Ted McKinney pointed out that the matters under discussion had been before the planning commission in hearings for the past two months, prior to being presented to council.

Following the change, council approved the final subdivision map for the Biltmore Estates in Section 23, subject to the usual performance conditions.

Blanket Sign Variances for Business Houses Approved

Two blanket variances for all businesses in regard to the city sign ordinance were approved by city council Tuesday evening, and City Attorney Jerry Bunker was directed to incorporate the variances into amendments of the ordinance.

Under the variances, businesses may increase the size of signs up to 50 percent, effective May 1, with the exception of "closed for summer" signs which are limited to an area not exceeding five square feet.

The ordinance previously had provided for an increase of 100 percent in sign size area effective June 1 to October 1. The latter deadline will remain in effect.

Anybody wishing to make use of additional sign size area during the summer months must make application to the city license inspector for a permit.

Council asked that all merchants who close their businesses during the summer months cooperate with the Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce and decorate their windows, instead of covering them with brown paper.

Tamarisk Road Safety Project Studied by City

Possibility of rounding off the corners of high walls located at Tamarisk road is now being investigated by city officials, as an aid in making the street safer for traffic.

Council Tuesday evening, acting on the recommendation of Frank Miller, directed City Manager R. W. Peterson and Public Works Director Frank Hammerschlag to contact property owners in the area and see if this program would be acceptable.

In this way, Miller said in proposing the action, motorists would not be bothered by blind corners and could proceed at a reasonable rate of speed without worrying about cars coming out of the side streets.

Regarding widening of the street, City Manager R. W. Peterson said that a preliminary survey established the approximate cost of reconstructing the street at $12,000 for a 30-foot pavement and curbs. This does not include acquisition of additional right-of-way.

Public Works Director Frank Hammerschlag told council that improving the street without acquiring additional right-of-way would not be a solution to the problem, and Councilman Earle Strebe termed it "money ill-spent."

They were held up by the war and delayed by legal tactics of opponents.

Only last week they successfully fought off an attempt to repeal the Authority act in Sacramento.

And this week the oft-repeated question: "Will we really have a tramway?" was answered in the affirmative over the weekend at the meeting held here.

The situation looks good, according to those in charge.

THERE IS STILL much technical work to be done before construction can start. Preparation for the sale of the revenue bonds and then, the actual sale must come first.

A constant guard must be maintained to protect the ground won so far. (Only last week opponents meeting at Idyllwild said they planned to continue their fight.)

But optimism is high that the huge project will be completed by the end of 1957.

At Sunday's meeting here were Earl Coffman and Francis Crocker, Palm Springs members of the Authority; James Nussbaum of Los Angeles, also Authority member; Henry Lockwood, legal counsel for the Authority; Leland Kaiser, San Francisco and Howard Finney, New York.

Two Assessment Hearing Dates Set

Public hearing on Assessment District No. 14, Avenida Palmas, was set by city council Tuesday evening for 8:15 p.m., Tuesday, June 7.

City Manager R. W. Peterson reported to council that the improvement was petitioned by 70.71 percent of the property owners involved, and that estimated cost of the project was $5740.

UNEDITED

By BILL RASHALL

Make every moment of your life as exciting as possible. Make every trivial incident as colorful as you are capable of doing. You'll stay young at heart and if you so qualify, Palm Springs is where you rightfully belong as a resident.

This community is growing. It is leaping ahead with seven league boots. Watch the growth carefully so that in its growing it bends neither to the left or to the right but upright and firmly erect. Raise your voices, citizens, in such places where what you have to say may bring about a city of which we can all be proud.

All of the above was brought to mind as a result of a personal investigation I conducted regarding the population of Palm Springs during the forthcoming summer months.

IN GENERAL it points to the fact that there will be more people living in Palm Springs throughout the entire summer months than ever before in the history of this so-called Village.

There will be more persons at work constructing homes—homes mind you, the backbone of any solid community—a few hotels and many swimming pools. And this activity is not confined to within the city limits of Palm Springs. The entire Coachella Valley up to and including Indio is throbbing with activity.

THIS ENTIRE DESERT is growing. It's jumping, to use the vernacular and in doing the latter there is always some danger. Danger of the wrong kind of growth—the wrong kind of homes—and the money hungry individuals who care for naught except the dollar.

Elsinore Machris Gilliland is a gal who never reneges on a promise. She declared before a group of men at El Mirador hotel during the past Circus Week that she would match in toto any sums collected for Mickey Finn and his Boy's Ranch. When the collection was counted from Jan King, $100 and similar amounts from Dave Margolis, Robert Ransom, Ernie Young, Commander Maurice Horner, Earl Henderson, Pearl McManus and E. Roy Fitzgerald plus $500 from Bill Groves, Mrs. Gilliland came up with a check for $1400.

Of course, this sum is still a long way from the amount needed by Mickey to purchase the land necessary plus the cost of buildings for his Boys' Ranch. By the way, once that ranch is established E. Roy Fitzgerald and a handsome Irishman by the name of Ray Ryan have pledged, I am informed, to pay the major portion of maintenance. That me good friends, will be a good round sum, believe me!

New Hours Go in Effect at C. of C.

New office hours went into effect at the Chamber of Commerce this week, with elimination of the Sunday opening being the major change.

Hours now in effect, according to Manager Xavier Lucius, are: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday.

an "off the record" basis. Published, some of these off-the-record stories could very well play havoc with worth while projects for the community, with individual persons many of whom investigation proves innocent.

On the other hand, I have known persons, as many newspapermen have also experienced, who ask that no publicity be given this or that, turn right around (rarely unaware of what they are doing) blurt the story out so that it gains widespread publicity. What happens then? The Boss or the Editor in whom you must confide and report, stares at you with a questioning glare.

WHAT HAPPENED to the pickets? For the second time in ten years they silently folded their tents (placards) and departed this sublime and peaceful city. There is no denying they caused a great amount of speculation but no one with the exception of two or three little lunch counters signed with the Culinary Workers' local of San Bernardino, Hail and farewell, but farewell in some other place. We've been getting along fine here for a long, long time.

In the Starlite Room the other night catching the new show of Estelita and Noonan and his wife. An excellent show enjoyed by a large crowd including Joe E. Brown. Stopped and talked to him for a moment or two and asked about his son Joe L. Brown, ex-captain of the army air base who was stationed here during World War II and may be remembered by many here. Served with the Captain a handsome six footer who is now in a non-playing capacity with the Pittsburgh Pirates. He is the father of two children now.

The next day my neighbor, Ralph Hancock, famous author informed me that he was doing the biography of Joe E. Brown. I asked for permission to talk to Brown at the Hancock home during one of their prolonged interviews. Hancock has a novel way of interviewing his subjects. He uses a recording machine and then plays it back over and over again, no doubt until he knows the subject better than perhaps he knows himself. I am certain that the story Ralph Hancock is writing about that funny little man of screen, stage and sometimes TV will be highly interesting.

I PLAN TO WRITE my interview with Joe E. Brown for the Monday edition of The Desert Sun. I'll try, but in vain I know, to make it as interesting as Hancock could if he would only write it.

Hal Waltz just stepped into my office. He is the manager of the Palm Springs Community Television corporation.

"We have installed, as of May 1, 1.611 cable drops for television reception in the Village. And," he added, "at the rate we are going now should have 2,000 or more by the time the new season of 1955-56." Good going, Hal.

THE "CHEF" Tommy Noonan and his lovely wife Carole who are currently co-starring in the Chi Chi's Starlite Room with Estelita the South American Bombshell songstress who sings many a song of Cuban origin as well as those popular American songs. Noonan who imitates a chef on a TV program with his wife brings down the house with his antics.

Starlite Room Show Packed with Constant Laughter

By DON CABALLERO

Have you ever seen a pair of roguish eyes that bewitch while the owner sings exciting songs. That's a cataclysmic combination of great portent but so gloriously entertaining.

In describing Estelita, currently intriguing every one with her repertoire of songs from way down below the border, some of which she claims come from Cuba and the others from just plain U.S.A. And by the way, she has all that stuff that is intriguing if not goldarn exciting.

The South American bombshell somebody called her. Actually, I believe she is filled with atomic energy—all judged while watching her performance last night.

AND ALTHOUGH Estelita may be worth the price of an evening, there is one Tommy Noonan whose spinstery story and the white doves—or were they white birds of some other specie—that brings the house down with laughter.

The most important part of Noonan's performance is his characterization of an English motion picture director and the chef who drinks so much of the ingredients of a recipe he is trying to teach to housewives over an imaginary TV program.

IN THE FIRST impersonation, Noonan, as the motion picture director, indicates the man's ability as an actor. You must know that he co-starred in the motion picture "A Star Is Born" and is currently appearing as the comedy star in "Violent Saturday."

By the time Noonan is half way through the various steps in his chef act he is as drunk as any man has a right to be and is thoroughly laugh provoking. In both the English director bit and the Chef characterization Tommy Noonan uses his lovely wife, Carole, as his "straight man" and she does a good job of that part, believe me.

The show should be seen for a night of grand entertainment.

MOSIER, COOK WIN IN RACQUET CUP DOUBLES

Hal Mosier repeated as a member of the winning Men's Doubles team in the Racquet Club Tennis tournament over the weekend, but with a different partner, Tommy Cook.

The two Class A champions scored an upset victory over A. L. Zerbe and Joe Ciano, 6-1, 7-5.

Littler Captures Vegas Tourney by 13 Strokes

Gene Littler of Thunderbird Country club finished all by himself in the Tournament of Champions last weekend at Las Vegas.

He took the $10,000 first prize with a 13-stroke lead over his nearest competitor.

The Thunderbird entry's card was 69-71-68-72—280 for the four-day event, eight under par.

THE VICTORY was registered in the face of adverse weather conditions, a steady gale, some rain and chilly weather.

Littler started the tournament in a tie with two others for first place Thursday, forged ahead by three strokes Friday, went ahead by ten Saturday and added another three strokes Sunday for insurance.

HIS TRIUMPH at Las Vegas, added to victories in the Los Angeles and Phoenix Opens, brought his total earnings for this year to date to $21,950.74.

Littler's 13-stroke margin at Las Vegas was the largest margin in any tournament since Ben Hogan won at Portland by 14 strokes.

for a golf course site, and would give council a gauge for cost of other proposed locations.

Nathanson, in opposition, said that the land is owned by members of the Agua Caliente Band of Mission Indians, including minors, thereby making purchase almost an impossibility, or at the best, a long drawn-out affair.

Following defeat of the original motion, Strebe proposed that City Manager R. W. Peterson be authorized to hire an engineer or secure from county authorities a written or oral report on the feasibility of use of the land for a golf course, as related to flood danger, but this was not made in the form of a motion, and was not brought up for discussion by Boyd.

COUNCIL, by unanimous vote, did authorize William Bell, Jr., noted golf course architect to come here and inspect all proposed sites. He is expected to do this by next week.

Another proposal to meet with Irl Brett, former United States attorney, in regard to purchase of Indian-owned land, also met with council's approval, and the session was set for 2 p.m., May 20, when Brett will be in the Village on another matter.

At the start of the discussion, six sites had been listed by Peterson as possible locations. They were in Sections 1, 13, 19, 26, 29 and 35.

Ohrt Completes 'Last Ride' from Beverly Hills Here

Hans Ohrt checked in at Harold Hicks real estate office Monday at 2:50 p.m. after his 13th bicycle ride from Beverly Hills to Palm Springs, a distance of 120 miles. His time was 10 hours, 50 minutes.

"I think this will be my last trip," he told The Desert Sun upon his arrival here.

Ohrt said that sloppy road conditions and rain which he experienced most of the way until he rounded Whitewater point north of the city, tended to slow him up.

"WHEN I ROUNDED the point and saw Palm Springs and the desert stretched out ahead of me, I felt good. Brilliant sunshine took the place of gloomy weather," he said.

Mrs. Ohrt, who in the past made six trips from Beverly Hills to Palm Springs with her husband on a tandem bicycle, arrived here shortly before her husband. She came down in the family station wagon.

Ohrt said that he encountered nothing but courteous motorists on the way down here. He was even offered several "lifts" he said.

HE CAME BY WAY of San Timoteo canyon to avoid the steep grades this side of Redlands and said the best time he made was from Banning to Palm Springs, on the down-grade with a strong tail wind.

"Zoomed along at 40 miles an hour," he said.

Ohrt, former United States bicycle champion and at present, United States representative at European bicycle races, plans to go to Europe with Mrs. Ohrt again this Summer to take in the world championship bicycle races at Milan, Italy.

Ohrt rode a French model bicycle with eight speeds but said he only used four of them.

MR. AND MRS. OHRT plan to rest several days at their La Quinta home.

"Well, I guess this is my last 120-mile ride down here," he said. "I think that hereafter I'll confine my mileage to my age. Sixty miles limit on my trips. I'm 60, you know." He celebrated that birthday in February.

Ohrt's fastest time between Beverly Hills and Palm Springs was 7 hours and 10 minutes a few years ago.

"Good winds and perfect weather, that time," he commented.

Bonds, Charter on Same Ballot

A special election will probably be called later this year by board of supervisors to ballot on two propositions — election of a board of freeholders to draw up a county charter and on a proposed $4 million dollar county building bond issue.

Chairman William H. Jones of county board, said that the date will be fixed when the charter advocates complete their petitions seeking the freeholder election. Supervisors had declined to call an election on their own volition and petitions were put into circulation immediately by charter proponents.

Military honors were accorded Pete at burial in the San Jacinto Valley cemetery.

He died Sunday morning at San Jacinto, following an illness of about two weeks duration.

Born March 18, 1926, at Banning, he had been a resident of Palm Springs and Riverside county most of his life.

During World War II he served with the United States Marine Corps, and was awarded the Silver Star for action at Iwo Jima.

Survivors include his widow, Iona, San Jacinto; four children, Marcus Joseph, Jr., and Lois, Marie, of San Jacinto, and Michael Dennis and Priscilla Ann, of Palm Springs; his mother, Mrs. Lucy Soubel, North Palm Springs; two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Monk, Palm Springs, and Jennifer Lee Soubel, of North Palm Springs.

His allotment as a member of the Agua Caliente Indians included Lot No. 2 in the 200 block of North Indian avenue.

Used House Bill Blocked by Tie

Adoption of an ordinance to prohibit moving of used houses into the county unless they come up to county building standards, was blocked Monday when two supervisors voted "no." The vote was 2 to 2 with one supervisor absent.

The ordinance was introduced by Supervisor Homer Varner who said that it was designed to prevent the moving into the county of 2000 houses from Oxnard. Varner termed them "junk" houses.

Supervisor Roman Warren and Fred McCall said they wanted more information on the measure and voted no. Varner and Supervisor William Jones favored the bill.

County Traffic Toll Increasing

Southern California's traffic toll showed an increase in the first quarter of 1955 compared with the similar period in 1954. The Automobile Club of Southern California reported this week.

Fatalities in the 13 southland counties during January, February and March this year were 426. For the corresponding period last year the total was 399.

In Riverside county the first 1955 quarter resulted in 37 traffic deaths. There were 35 in the first three months of 1954.

Police Training Course Planned

Four in-service training meetings will be conducted for officers of the Palm Springs Police department during the month of May. Chief August G. Kettmann announced.

First is Friday night, with Kettmann conducting a session on public relations.

TELEVISION STARLET Gerry Vanek goes to work on a bad sparkplug as she readies her Beechcraft Bonanza for the Third Annual Transcontinental Air Cruise, which will be flown from H. L. Gogerty's Desert Air hotel, Rancho Mirage, to Philadelphia, June 18-25. The mass flight of light aircraft is made to stress the safety, ease and economy of private flying for business and pleasure.

Juveniles Held in Study of Thefts

Two Cathedral City juveniles faced questioning at the County Juvenile Hall this week after their arrest in Arizona by highway patrol officers Saturday. They are suspected of taking two guns and a quantity of ammunition from Rupp's Supply in Cathedral City last week and having stolen an automobile from in front of the Elks

Inquiries at Chamber Hit Another New High Mark

Walk-in and telephone inquiries made at the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce continued to show a large increase during April of 1955, compared to the same period last year, Mildred Wenger, in charge of the Visitor's Bureau, reported this week. An increase has been shown throughout the Winter and Lodge on Highway 111. One of the boys is 14, the other 10.

Spring months. Walk-in traffic last month totalled 4,959 persons, an increase of 30 percent over the 1954 figure of 3,468. Telephone inquiries were 2,714, up 23 percent over the 1954 figure of 2,080. There were 553 letters of inquiry answered during April, compared to 320 last year. The most letters came from New York, with other leading states being New Jersey, Washington and Texas.

Annual Air Cruise to Start from Desert Air on June 18

Entr' lists will close at midnight May 15 for the Third Annual Transcontinental Air Cruise sponsored by the Philadelphia Junior Chamber of Commerce. It was announced Monday by H. L. Gogerty, owner of the Desert Air hotel, Rancho Mirage, starting point of the cruise. Reports from Philadelphia indicate that more private pilots will make the 2,579 mile cross-country cruise this year than ever before.

J. C. DAVIDSON, chairman of the Jaycee Air Cruise committee, said the purpose of the mass flight is to substantiate the safety, ease and advantages of modern light airplanes and to promote the use of this type of plane for vacation flying. The cruise, June 18-25, is flown under Visual Flight Rules and is limited to stock aircraft of less than 300 horsepower, which are equipped with standard radio manufactured since January 1, 1946.

LAST YEAR 64 planes carrying 125 people made the cross-country excursion. Bonanzas, Navions, Cessnas and Stinsons dominate the mass flight with a sprinkling of Pipers, Luscombes and other light planes completing the field. The 1954 flight started in Philadelphia and terminated at Desert Air hotel as did the 1953 event. This is the first Transcontinental Air Cruise sponsored by the Philadelphia group which is flying from west to east.

THE CRUISE is unique since it offers families an opportunity for a nation-wide vacation. The cruise is not a race against time but stresses skill in flying and navigation, and allows the pilot one week for completion. "Hank" Gogerty plans a gala pre-flight dinner on Friday, June 17. Other celebrations are planned in Phoenix, Arizona and Tulsa, Oklahoma en route to Philadelphia. Applications should be submitted to Air Crusade Committee, Philadelphia Junior Chamber of Commerce, Architect's Building, 17th and Sansome Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The riders will break camp Saturday, May 14.

You'll feel like a pilot

without leaving the ground

Just wait till you switch the pitch of Buick's new Dynaflow*!

How would you like to take the wheel of a high-powered Buick and feel an experience you never felt before in any earth-bound vehicle?

How would you like to do—just by pressing down the gas pedal—what a pilot does when he's ready for take-off?

And how would you like to drive with the happy thought that you're getting plenty of miles per gallon in normal cruising—and the electrifying action of the world's first airplane-principled transmission when you need it for split-second getaway response?

It's all for you when you say the word and slip into the driver's seat of a new Buick with Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

Not only do you take command of record-high Buick V8 power—and the most envied ride in the industry—and the brawn and heft and luxury of a truly solid automobile.

You also call the turn on twenty propeller-like blades deep inside a wondrous new Dynaflow that's patterned after the principle of the modern plane's variable pitch propeller.

You hold these blades in their high-economy angle when you press the pedal in the normal way—and you get a lot more miles from a tankful of gas.

You switch the pitch of these blades to take-off position when you press the pedal way down—and you get spectacular action instantly.

Don't take our word alone that this is thrilling beyond all previous experience.

Talk to anyone who's tried it. Or, better yet, come try it yourself. That way you can learn firsthand why Buick sales are soaring to all-time best-seller highs. Drop in this week, won't you?

*Dynaflow Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Cathedral City Growing at Remarkable Rate

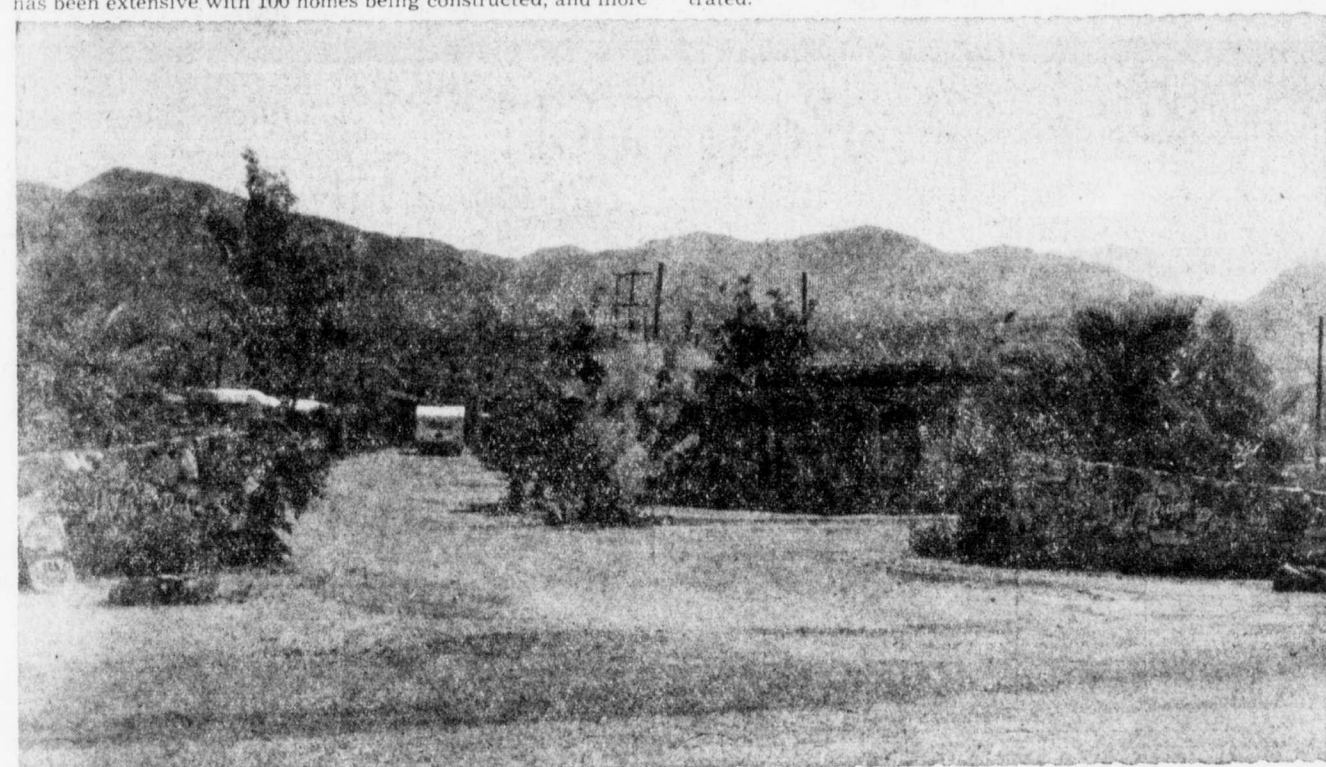

CATHEDRAL CANYON development in the past three years has been extensive with 100 homes being constructed, and more planned in the immediate future. Above, the growth is illustrated.

DELUXE TRAILER PARK now has 150 trailer spaces, with an expansion program under way all winter, and has plans for an additional 100 spaces. Cathedral City offers trailerites between 400 and 500 spaces.

CATHEDRAL CITY GROWTH IN PAST FEW YEARS KEEPING PACE WITH VAST DESERT EXPANSION

Growth in Cathedral City has been as phenomenal as that of Palm Springs.

And it is continuing at the same rapid rate. One indication of this is that 30 new water meters were installed during the first three months of this year, the same amount as through September of 1954.

The number of water meter connections has doubled since 1949, and even this comparison is under rated as many of the new connections have been to motels and multiple units where only one connection is needed.

Population in the unincorporated village is now estimated at 3,000, with this increased to 5,000 during the Winter season.

It's a progressive community too, as it demonstrated by being the first unincorporated area in Riverside county to take advantage of the zoning laws when passed by the supervisors.

And through the Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce the cooperation of property owners was secured in order to pave the wide, two-lane highway through the village.

Last year, Bob Sherrill, serving as president of the Chamber, successfully conducted a program of civic improvement which included the placing of palm tree clusters at each main entrance to the town.

CHAMBER ACTIVITIES were also of a great aid in securing of adequate flood control drainage for the village, and thereby provide for extensive development in the upper canyon areas. W. R. Hillery, who serves as one of the three commissioners for Zone 6, Flood Control, and who is a resident of Cathedral City, was active in this program.

During the past three years, about 100 homes have been constructed in Cathedral Canyon as a result of the securing of adequate flood control.

Two weeks ago it was announced by Edward F. Koenig and Thomas A. Jordan, associates in Engineering Service Corporation, that 90 acres, comprising the remaining portion of the Charlesworth and Melrose properties lying above Grand View avenue in Cathedral Canyon, will be developed into a choice residential district.

CATHEDRAL CITY Development company also has just opened another block of its Cathedral City Highlands Division, and one half of the lots have been sold.

Sun-Air Development Corporation and Palm Springs Heights, Inc., under the direction of Walter Melrose, has just opened up 35 lots to the public, and plans on opening of 50 more in October.

Trailer facilities in Cathedral City are also excellent, with 400 to 500 spaces available to the public.

THE VILLAGE has up-to-date shops lining its attractive main street.

Library facilities are recognized as of the best in the county system, under a program financed jointly by the county and the Chamber of Commerce.

As mentioned previously, the Chamber is very active. Newly elected officers are Claude S. Cobb, president; Orville Zappe, first vice president; Robert Cordes, second vice president; Warner S. Moon, secretary, and Mrs. Leslie Kelly, treasurer. Paul Clark is chairman of the publicity committee.

Joshua Tree Event Attracts Throngs

Large crowds visited Joshua Tree over the weekend to take in the three-day carnival staged there by the Veterans of Foreign Wars post.

The event was climaxed Sunday by the tenth annual Joshua Tree Turtle races with the "track" surrounded by cheering spectators.

Martel Ferris of the Joshua Tree Journal manned the announcing system.

Eight Dwellings in Village Area

One new dwelling was begun at Cathedral City this week at a cost of $5,160. The county building department permit was issued to J. Hanley.

Another Cathedral City permit went to George Rennett for a barbecue to cost $700.

Clayton Bryson was issued a county permit for additions to a dwelling at Shangri-La Palms to cost $400.

During the week the county department of buildings issued ten permits at Palm Desert. Seven were for dwellings, two for pools, one for a garage.

Sneak Thief

Caught in Act of Looting Auto

Alertness of Officer Robert Johnson early Sunday morning resulted in the apprehension of William Guillermo Fontes, 26, 216 South El Segundo, as a suspect in a petty theft charge.

Johnson was checking cars in a downtown parking lot while on routine patrol at 2:30 a.m. when he noticed someone duck his head down in the front seat of a vehicle. Checking further, he discovered Fontes in the car, and in his possession was a flashlight and a bar of soap which had been taken from the glove compartment of the vehicle.

The car was owned by Arthur Weil, 418 South Palm Canyon drive.

Fontes was booked on a drunk charge, as well as petty theft.

Appearing in justice court Monday, Fontes was sentenced to 10 days in county jail on each count, with the two terms to run concurrently.

I am pleased to announce that as of May 1st, 1955, the Palm Springs Credit Bureau will be known as the Credit Bureau of Palm Springs and Coachella Valley, having been purchased by me. We invite you to use our services.

I have been in the credit field continually for the past 25 years, having successfully operated both the Credit Bureau of Long Beach and the Credit Bureau of Norwalk, which offices are still in operation by me.

CATHEDRAL CITY

By PAUL AND MILDRED CLARK

PLAN SANITARY PATROL

Members of the Cathedral Sanitation District board at their meeting last week discussed the problem of the illegal dumping of garbage at the dump maintained by the district north of Ramon road.

The dump is maintained only for the disposal of trash and rubbish, as garbage has to be disposed of by the cut and cover method. The Desert Disposal Service which has the franchise for garbage pickup in the district hauls to the Palm Springs dump where the district pays for cut and cover disposal.

An attempt will be made to patrol the Cathedral dump at irregular hours so that violators may be apprehended. A letter from Supervisor Homer Varner said that the county may contribute $800 annually toward the dump site maintenance. President Edward Biles pointed out that there is far more use of the dump by the surrounding county area than by the Cathedral City district, and hoped that the amount contributed by the county might be doubled.

President Biles also announced that negotiations were under way with the Cemetery District which has drilled a water well within one mile of the dump site whereby water could be made available if and when required for development.

LIONS ENTERTAIN

Cathedral City Lions club entertained almost one hundred members and wives of the Alhambra Lions on their annual desert outing over the weekend with a Saturday night party at Crawford's Flying H residence. Exhibitions of Spanish, Western and Ball room dancing were enjoyed. Sunday morning the two clubs were served an outdoor breakfast at Larrison's ranch in Desert Cove. A committee of local Lions prepared and served the breakfast. President Carl Jackson expressed the appreciation of the club to Dr. Robert Bertrand, Charles Martin, William Hendrickson, Robert and Delores Cordes, Claude and Edna Cobb, Wilbur and Alphamary Larrison, Verne and Lavina Kring, Leslie and Bessie Kelley, and Scouts Pug Mayfield and Mike Woody.

LIONS TO INSTALL

Lions District Governor George Durvey of Chula Vista will install newly elected officers at the Cathedral City Lions club Thursday evening, May 12, at a dinner meeting at the Chi Chi. Deputy Governor Fred Morrison of Palm Springs will induct new members, and Paul Clark will introduce the visiting dignitaries.

President Carl Jackson said that representatives have been invited from Blythe, Indio and Palm Springs Lions clubs. One hundred per cent attendance pins will be awarded for one or north of the Rock Gate on Palm Canyon drive and at the eastern city limits on Highway 111.

Plans for a membership campaign were launched and each charter member of the association is on a committee to contact every resident of the area. It was decided to hold meetings on the last Thursday of each month at Howard Manor throughout the summer.

PRESIDENT HARRIS and Robert Ransom, secretary, were named on a civic committee to attend all meetings of city council to report back to the association on matters affecting the area and to offer the association's cooperation in all proposals benefiting Palm Springs.

Dues for association membership were fixed at $12 annually. A. T. Kehl, treasurer, is accepting membership applications at 1550 North Palm Canyon drive.

Residents of Palm Springs were urged this week to aid in the observance of Mental Health Week in a proclamation by Mayor Florian G. Boyd in which he called attention to the great need for an adequate campaign to combat this great health problem.

He asked Villagers to share in the campaign for education, to further research work and provide more hospital care.

Mental Health Week ends May 7.

WHAT CIVIL DEFENSE MEANS TO ME

What does Civil Defense mean to me? Civil Defense has vital meanings to every American, from the white collar worker and his family in the suburbs of New York to the farmer and his household on the plains of the Middle West.

The purpose of Civil Defense is to train citizens for a crisis. We must realize that this situation could occur at any time. Enemy planes can reach any major city of the United States. The late General Hoyt Vandenberg, Chief of Staff of the United States Air Force, said that at most we could knock down only thirty out of each one hundred enemy planes attacking United States. Our country is not impervious to enemy attack; therefore, we must be prepared. This is the work and purpose of the Civil Defense program. If this crisis develops, Civil Defense is the only organized means by which we can prevent unnecessary loss of life due to the indirect effects of wars, such as panic or epidemic, as well as the direct results.

So far, I have discussed the purposes of Civil Defense. Now, how does it work? Civil Defense means exactly what it says, the defense and protection of the people by the people. Civil Defense depends upon every citizen of our country. A few hours a week learning what to do in emergencies may save our own lives as well as the lives of those we love.

Every American must realize that this is his duty. He must not shrug his shoulders and say, "Oh, some other time, maybe. Why doesn't Brown do it? He has more time than I. I am a busy man."

If too many people have this attitude Civil Defense will collapse. Without the "Civil" the "Defense" is meaningless. It is our job, and we must realize it and do something about it.

What would happen if there were no Civil Defense? Ask the Japanese, Hiroshima and Nagasaki, had no civil defense, and consequently extra damage was done, damages which a well-manned and organized Civil Defense could have stopped.

The present problems of Civil Defense are great. Many more people are needed for educational purposes; many more for the Ground Observer Corps. Besides the people trained in rescue work, a large engineering service would be needed to clear away rubble. A supply service would be needed for distributing food, clothing and medicine. Other jobs—putting out fires, restoring utilities, caring for the homeless, gathering families, and getting the city on its industrial feet once more—are part of the Civil Defense program that needs our services.

Many people think that Civil Defense is "waste motion," a "draining, useless expense." It is neither of these. It is necessary, vitally necessary, in these times of uncertainty and danger. It is certainly better to be prepared for an emergency that never arises than to be unprepared for a disaster that strikes suddenly and without warning.

When I think of Civil Defense, pictures come to mind: pictures of a well run evacuation during an enemy attack or before the onslaught of a flood or disease. I picture Civil Defense as one of the greatest unifying forces in our Nation, as well as being a good defense measure. It is known far and wide as a peacetime rescue party, through which the services of various charitable organizations can work effectively. I picture Civil Defense as a much needed training ground, teaching, building, and guiding, young people especially, providing them with something to do. Yes, Civil Defense gives everyone something to do and at the same time adds to the participant's experience in cooperation with each other, helping them to better serve their country. Civil Defense is truly humane and brotherly. It is our best defense against disaster.

While many inspiring pictures crowd the mind when the topic "Civil Defense" comes up, the picture of public disinterest and unpreparedness detracts from the etching. Civil Defense has fine goals and works hard to gain them. Too often, though, the public is left uninformed. When a motorist sees an accident, his foot lifts up on the accelerator a little and he becomes much more alert. A home owner buys the needed insurance or fixes that electric cord when he sees a friend's home burn. He is impressed! He takes action!

This is what Civil Defense needs—an impressed public; a public which knows that it is vital to national survival to be well informed and well versed in Civil Defense. The public must be impressed into action or all aims and ambitions of our Civil Defense are useless. If Civil Defense is to mean a great deal to our Nation, the job of publicity, and the job of Civil Defense itself must be well done. If a job is worth doing, it is worth doing well! Civil Defense too, must be well done if done at all, for if it is not perfected to a high degree, the situation which would arise in a crisis would probably be worse than if no direction was given at all. To whom will the people turn when the help they expected from Civil Defense is inadequate?

A part of Civil Defense is air raid warnings, usually given by sirens. These sirens must be heard all over the community if any good is to be done by them. These sirens must mean something, too! When the public is accustomed to disregarding these sirens because Civil Defense says, "Just go about your work, this is only for us," what will happen, will the public know it when it's the real thing?

Here in this town we have a problem. The sirens are lacking, the populace uninformed. While Palm Springs is certainly not destined for atomic attack, what of those refugees coming in from the Coast? What of the radioactive "fall-outs"? Aren't these "fall-outs" just as dangerous as the actual bomb? Why do we sit idle? Why do we not do a job well and be prepared? Why do we not make Civil Defense real?

To bring Civil Defense to the forefront of our minds it must be made living, real, vital! To do this is certainly one of the aims of Civil Defense. To keep the public informed and interested is a highly important part of the whole Civil Defense program. Without this, the entire scheme falls through. By public drills, by literature, by talking to and persuading school children, by using the facilities of radio and television, Civil Defense can be made real. It can be brought home, carrying over in full its meaning and usefulness. Another fine way of drawing attention to Civil Defense is by demonstrations at fairs and at schools.

Following through this idea of public drills in Civil Defense, the fine example of New York City in clearing the great arteries of the downtown area in seconds is to be noted, copied and practiced! Bringing the public into Civil Defense is difficult, of course, but what of the difficulties encountered when an untutored public is threatened by an enemy attack? I shudder to think of the pandemonium which could reign for days—unchecked! Certainly we should take no chances!

Another fine way of reaching the public is through the schools. At school, students are drilled time and time again in the procedure used in case of fire. Couldn't this method be used for Civil Defense also? It certainly would send home the point, with impact! The mind would be impressed.

One of the best ways of teaching the public, of reaching them with ideas, is by literature and radio. These advertising mediums are among the world's greatest. Centering on radio for a moment, the Civil defense radio system, Conelrad, comes to mind. So seldom is it used. Why couldn't the inhabitants of the United States become more and better acquainted with this system? Isn't it wise to make this radio system well known? Civil Defense can't afford to pass up anything along this line!

Then, there is the advertising medium of demonstrations at fairs and schools. All of us attend a fair sometime. The use of this form of entertainment by Civil Defense will impress and enlighten the minds of the public. Showing the whys and wherefores of Civil Defense to school children is also wise. Once children are convinced, parents can be reached. Fire prevention promoters use these methods of advertising, why can't Civil Defense? Remember, Civil Defense must impress people or it fails!

What does Civil Defense mean to me? It means that a team of men and women goes all out for the U. S. A. It means to me a step in the right direction toward unity and safety. An organization which is performing one of the greatest tasks ever undertaken by the U. S. A.—that's Civil Defense and that's what it means to me.

Will you leave this to your children?

Men have died to leave you this symbol of freedom.

"ADAM AND FALLEN MAN" LESSON-SERMON TEXT

The uplifting power of God made manifest in His great love for man keynotes the Lesson-Sermon "Adam and Fallen Man" in the Christian Science churches Sunday.

"As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive" (1 Cor. 15:22) is the Golden Text of the sermon.

A reference from Revelation (21:3,7) develops this thought. It reads, "I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, . . . and God himself shall be with them, and be their God . . . He that overcometh shall inherit all things."

On this subject Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Popular theology takes up the history of man as if he began materially right, but immediately fell into mental sin; whereas revealed religion proclaims the Science of Mind and its formations as being in accordance with the first chapter of the Old Testament, when God, Mind, spoke and it was done" (p. 557).

"God's Family" Subject Sunday of Dr. Blackstone

"God's Family" will be the topic for the sermon by Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., pastor of Palm Springs Community church next Sunday at the 11 a.m. service.

Mother's Day will be observed in the church with special floral arrangements and special music by the Chancel choir under the direction of David Olson.

Sunday school with classes for all ages, starts at 9:30 a.m. There is also a nursery with trained attendants for children of parents attending church services.

Dr. and Mrs. Blackstone will lead the discussion at Christian Endeavor meetings at 6:15 p.m. The Christian home will be the topic at the evening service starting at 7:30.

At the service the prize-winning essays in a contest conducted by the church will be read. The contest was divided into three divisions, seventh and eighth graders, ninth and tenth graders and high school juniors and seniors. The prize in each division is a week at Forest Home. Topic of the essays was "The Christian Home."

Special music is planned for the evening.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

Party paradox: Invitations may say 6:30 but who arrives before 7... Hof's d'oeuvres are lavish... but the dieters and those who are going on to dinner... glance at them casually and say "no, thank you"... The house is at its party best... but the guests are so numerous that no one notices... the musician strums his guitar and sings... but the chatter is so loud that it goes unheard... Add it all up and it makes a successful soiree... for it is people that make a party... and if the guests are gay nothing else matters... This has been a gay season... with party following party... and every one of them the best kind of fun...

Party Patter

Parties are a fertile field for picking up social items... At the Maloufs' Saturday night I saw Helen Lloyd... who is back in her Village home after being away all Winter... Mrs. John (Beverly) Stauffer told me that she leaves for Europe on May 26... and Senora Adela Merry del Valle of Seville... who has been such an addition to the Palm Springs scene during her visit with the Frank Bennetts... leaves us next week... albeit reluctantly... Chatted with Froham Anderson of New York (president of Anderson Aircraft)... who is on the West Coast visiting aircraft factories... and was to lecture at North American on Monday...

Vi Anderson told me that M. O. and their daughter Mary Lou Beckett and her children... go North to Seattle this week... Mary Lou stayed longer than she had planned...

... because the youngsters came down with the chicken pox... Billie Kenaston and I were discussing eating places... and she came up with the suggestion that an International Strip would be fun... and that it could easily develop on Palm Canyon drive which already has Italian, Swiss, Jewish and Cantonese restaurants... What I miss most is Mexican food...

Showplaces

Stewart Williams, who has designed so many Palm Springs homes and buildings... is at work on what I hear is going to be one of the Village showplaces... for Mr. and Mrs. Leon Koerner of Vancouver B. C... Construction is to start June 1 in Deep Well Colony Estates and it is to be completed by October... A Beverly Hills landscape architect has been commissioned to do the planting and Arthur Elrod will do the interiors... He flew to New York Friday on a buying spree for this one... Understand the house will be in the over a hundred and fifty thousand dollar class when finished... Never saw anything like the way Deep Well section is building up... Bill Boggess' sensational new house... right across the street from the Koerners... has an L-shaped house... (More on Page 3a)

Gay Opening of Malouf's Playroom

Setting a precedent for future parties, their new playroom was filled with guests and gaiety when Vicki and Billy Malouf gave an opening party there on Saturday evening.

In modern theme with glass walls and indoor planters, its furnishings are ultra modern, with glass-topped tables and green lounges. A barbecue with circular serving counter divides the big room from the gleaming kitchen, where Santos and his staff prepared trays of hot and cold hors d'oeuvres.

Conversation pieces were a tiny monkey, curled up asleep in a tall wrought iron cage, and a bright-colored painting by O. E. L. Graves. The painting reproduced the gay scene of a week or so earlier, when the Maloufs entertained a few friends at a "sneak preview" party there. Many of the guests were easily identifiable and everyone had fun recognizing the people in the picture.

The flashing of photographer's light bulbs, for stills, color and movies, and the music of Harold Tonne added to the evening's festivities.

In the throng of over 200 guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Oliver Rousseau of San Francisco; Edward Arnold, Chester Garfield, Dick Carr, George Barracough, Paul Hoefler, John Gabriel, Frank Bennett, Bill Bannerman, Maurice Horner, Bob Kenaston, Dan Dunlap, John McClure, M. O. Anderson, Norman Waters, Julian Hazard, Franklin B. MacCarthy, Ben Gale, Dick Edwards, John Costello, Carl Flandrick, Edward Gibbs.

Also: Messrs. and Mesdames John Stauffer, Thomas Fleming, Owen Churchill, Oliver Jaynes, S. P. Manasse, John Kenaston, Edwin Fallgren, Monte Herbert, Belmont Sanchez, Arnold Rumwell, Harry Clatworthy, Harold Murphy, O. E. L. Graves, Kenneth Colburn, Herbert Burns, George Wheeler, Harold Cooper, Robert Lawson, Bat Scateni, J. V. Wilkenzook, Howard Morris, E. H. Robertson, Harold MacAlister, Joe Pawling, Gus Kettmann, Bill Crawford.

And Mes. Harry Joe Brown, Bertine Treat, Hathaway Kemper, Helen Lloyd, Guy Ward, Doris Markell, Trudy Clampett, Eleanor Kane, Anne Gouger, Homer McKee, Rosemary Rosecrance, Ray Horne, Verena Hebard, Fran Blish, Mary Hurrell, Senora Adela Merry del Valle, Miss Janet Jaynes, Miss Marjorie Pohl, Lt. Kenneth Colburn, Odell O'Connell.

WALLET LOST

Delayed report of the loss of a wallet containing $20 in cash, driver's license and personal identification, was made by mail to police Monday by Mona Flom of Westwood.

Sgt. Greene Addresses Club on Juvenile Delinquency

Blaming most juvenile delinquency on lack of training in the home, Sgt. Ted Greene, juvenile officer for the Palm Springs Police Department, told Soroptimists Tuesday noon that "too many parents tend to shirk their simple basic responsibilities."

"Three things that they should be teaching their children are morals, manners and religion," he said, adding "Families that learn to play together and pray together... stay together."

Saying that his work is a grave responsibility as it means dealing in human lives and "the things we do may affect their whole lives," Sgt. Greene outlined procedures in handling problem youth. Where the offenses are minor an attempt is made to handle the situation through home contact but more serious offenses may take the offenders into juvenile court or perhaps to industrial school or forestry camps.

Greene said that about 30 per cent of the complaints received by the police concern juveniles and that they interrogate well over 700 juvenile offenders each year. Of these only about 10 per cent are girls and only five per cent are actually arrested.

Greene gave high praise to Twin Pines Ranch, terming it "tops in the country" and said "there is no better place to send a boy."

He said that about 2400 juveniles are institutionalized in a year with 6,600 on parole and that it costs about $1,850 a year to house and school one boy or girl in juvenile home for a year. In California the state is spending about $9,000,000 a year in handling juvenile offenders. "It is a big program and an expensive program," he said.

The speaker was presented by Lois Lux. President Lucille Johnson conducted the meeting during which nominating ballots were distributed. Election of officers will take place at the regular business meeting on May 31, and plans are underway to hold a joint installation with the India Club later.

The luncheon meeting at the Chi Chi next Tuesday will be a social one observing the Club's birthday and members are asked to bring guests.

FAMOUS HAWAIIAN COMEDIAN Bill Whisling, who will be one of the stellar attractions at the third annual luau at Desert Air tomorrow night, teaches some new dance steps to Hank Gogerty, who is something of an expert himself. Gogerty's "Cock-Eyed Mayor" dance is famous all over the desert.

Desert Air's Annual Luau Tomorrow

Hawaii comes to the desert each year when Hank Gogerty stages his annual luau at Desert Air Park and tomorrow night is luau time at Desert Air.

This third annual luau promises to be the greatest yet as torches blaze and hurricane candles flicker on the tables around the pool making a romantic setting for the feasting and dancing.

A festive throng in Hawaiian costumes will gather about the barbecue pit as the roast pig is removed with fitting ceremonies; will dine on tropical fare; and enjoy a show replete with island dancers and romantic island melodies by native musicians.

There will be Danny Stewart and his popular Hawaiian Recording Orchestra and the great Thurston Knudsen will beat the jungle drums. An exciting program will include Bill Whisling, famous for his comedy act, and Freddie LaTouche, king of the knife dancers. In addition the fantastic array of talent will present Lani, Tahitian knife ceremonial dancer and a bevy of graceful and beautiful dancers.

Tahitian rum punch in bamboo cups will be served from 7 to 8 p.m. with the compliments of the management, which will also present each lady with a lei of fragrant blossoms flown here from the islands.

Those who have attended this luau in previous years wouldn't think of missing it and those who have never attended should make it a must. For this is authentic luau with all its color, excitement and gaiety.

Hotel the Oasis Winds Up 30th Season in City

Hotel the Oasis was closed for the season Sunday, terminating its 30th season and, according to manager, R. A. Metzendorf, "the best season in the history of the Oasis hotel's operation."

The Oasis first was built by Mrs. Austin (Pearl) McManus as a memorial to her noted father, John McCallum, one of the first settlers in this desert area. It later was purchased by Dewey Metzendorf with George Thompson, and was operated by the two for many years until Western Hotels Inc., purchased the hotel three years ago.

Thompson managed the hotel the first year after Western Hotels Inc. took over, and for the past two seasons R. A. (Bob) Metzendorf has been manager. He is on the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, and this year was one of the young business men selected by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as the "most outstanding business leader." He also is a member of Palm Springs Rotary Club, and serves on their board.

Publicity and promotion for the Oasis hotel has been handled the past three seasons by Beth Scott, who joined the hotel staff when Western Hotels Inc. took over operation here.

Dewey Metzendorf, former owner and now a vice president of Western Hotels, Inc., spends his weekend vacations here when he can get away from his duties as managing director of Western's Mayfair hotel in Los Angeles.

'We Walk Again' Board Studies Treatment Sites

Board of directors of the "We Walk Again" Foundation met Sunday at the home of Frank Scully, member of the executive board to discuss the Foundation's attitude on the Salk polio vaccine and to pick a site for treatment of polio cases in California.

Mrs. Lou Young, spokesman for the board, said that the choice had narrowed down to a hot springs near Pomona and Desert Hot Springs.

"The headlong embrace of the Salk vaccine and the stampede away from it at the moment, are equally bad for the conquest of this disease," said Frank Scully. "Even Dr. Salk never claimed it was 100 per cent effective. We wish, however, that more attention were paid to other therapies which have an imposing record of recoveries, some practically miraculous."

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hirsch of Hollywood last week purchased the Caliente Cottages, 425 South Indian avenue, from Mr. and Mrs. Herman Levine. Consideration was reported in the neighborhood of $135,000.

The new owners are making extensive remodeling plans and will keep Caliente Cottages open the year around.

The Levines who have operated Caliente Cottages for more than 11 years, plan to remain in Palm Springs. After a Summer vacation, they will return to the Village in the Fall to make their home.

GOVERNMENT IN BUSINESS — Efforts are being made to get the Federal government out of business competition with taxpayers and cut down on subsidies. But not much headway is being made. Indeed, there is still a tendency by some departments to launch new projects that are neither needed nor fair to taxpayers who do not share in the benefits. Let's cite a few examples.

In the May issue of Reader's Digest, Leslie A. Miller points to the vast new irrigation projects planned by the Bureau of Reclamation in the upper Colorado river basin. The extravagance of the proposal is indicated by some of the figures which Mr. Miller, a member of the Hoover Commission, cites in his article. Bringing water to the land will cost about $900 per acre although most of the land will not worth over $150 per acre when developed. Not only that — the $900 is only the beginning. A concealed subsidy by the U.S. Treasury brings the total cost to something like $2900! Hard to believe, isn't it? Another striking example cited by Miller is the Central Arizona Project which would involve a cost of $1990 an acre, with another federal subsidy of more than $9000 an acre! Of this subsidy it is estimated that the taxpayers of Arizona would pay about $11 million, while New Yorkers would contribute $256 million and Californians some $193 million.

All of this when government warehouses are overflowing with surplus farm products which can't be sold or even given away. Storage charges alone are said to be costing $700,000 per day! There is absolutely nothing to indicate that new farm lands are needed to produce all the food which Americans can eat or sell.

ANOTHER EXAMPLE — Since the last war Congress has been trying to establish a strong merchant marine. Despite more and more subsidies our merchant marine has been declining steadily. Other nations have been enlarging their commercial fleets.

Why has our merchant marine been slipping? It is competition of the Military Sea Transport Service — part of the Defense department. It's as hard to believe as a subsidy of $9000 an acre. We also have the Hoover Commission to thank for turning up this astonishing information.

The Military Sea Transport Service was established in 1949 with the Pentagon's promise that it would perform no service which private industry could perform. But today MSTs operates a fleet of more than 200 ships which are in direct competition with U.S. commercial ships. "Human Events" — a Washington, D.C. information service—gives us more about MSTs: "In 1954 its ships moved some 15 million tons of cargo into and out of the U.S. . . . For every six tons outbound only one ton was inbound, showing that homeward bound ships of the MSTs had relatively empty cargo holds (while) more than 85 percent of the large cargo traffic of MSTs could be carried in commercial ships of lines which have annually offered abundant space without success."

There were 60 ships in the passenger fleet of MSTs against only 40 for the whole merchant marine in 1954, and yet the Hoover Commission found that last year the number of civilians travelling on the MSTs ships was only about half the number carried by all privately owned U.S. flag ships combined.

SOCIALISTIC TREND — Do you think that your tax dollars should be spent by the Federal government to set up business enterprises that compete with your fellow citizens and taxpayers? Do you think that Californians, New Yorkers and Kansans should be asked to help finance that fantastic Central Arizona Project? Don't you think these proposals show a socialistic trend in our government? Write your congressmen and senators and give them your answers. You CAN have a hand in the affairs of your government.

Your letters will be read.

TRY AND STOP ME

By Bennett Cerf

WHEN CASEY STENGEL was managing a sub-par Brooklyn team — in days Ol' Case would just as soon forget — he started a rookie pitcher whose first six offerings were hammered for successive hits. Case stopped the carnage long enough to yell to his catcher, "What's he putting on that ball anyhow?" The catcher bawled back, "How the heck would I know? I ain't touched one he's thrown!"

Joe Grizzly Bear, hunting camp scout in the Black Hills, carries a favorite picture in his wallet. It shows a stout lady all togged up in fancy hunting clothes, with a smoking rifle in her hands, and a look of unholy glee on her face. "I must have hit something," she's exulting to her husband. "Just listen to that language!"

Alan Ladd, on location for a Western, came upon an Indian preparing smoke signals. "What size fire do you use?" asked Ladd. "It depends," explained the Indian, "on whether it's a local or a long distance call."

The patient in Room 726 was apoplectic with rage when the doctor stopped in on his morning round. "That idiot nurse that came in at 8 P.M.," he roared, "plugged my electric blanket into the automatic toaster on my night table — and every four minutes I'm kept popping out of bed!"

"It isn't exactly a brand-new farmhouse," admitted the real estate agent reluctantly. "Just four rooms and bath."

Overheard in the coffee shop of a downtown skyscraper: "I better be getting back to my desk or I'll be late for quitting time."

"Pop," inquired a young hopeful, "how did you come to marry Mamma anyhow?" "I didn't come to marry Mamma," said Pop grimly. "I came to collect the gas bill."

The Polio Vaccine

A number of people have spoken to me about this present disturbing situation that has arisen in the use of polio vaccine. As one reads or listens to the various news presentations, much confusion results. It was therefore thought advisable to give our readers some basic information pertaining to germ life, to sera and vaccines in general, and particularly to the present problem with the polio vaccine.

In detecting the cause of a disease which is due to bacterial or virus life, there are four postulates or definite facts which must be proven. First, an organism or germ must be isolated from the causative disease and identified. Two, this organism must be grown on culture media or in animal tissue. Three, it must when inoculated produce the same disease in all of its manifestations and four, it must again be recovered from the disease and again be recognized as the same organism originally removed and described as under one above.

THIS WAS DONE in polio myelitis and it was found that there were three different types of virus organisms producing three different forms of this disease. All three of these were isolated and proven under the above postulates.

In the making of a vaccine there are certain definite procedures which are followed. The organisms which are proven to be causative of the disease must be grown in a culture media which will enable them to grow luxuriantly and produce the poisons damaging to the body tissues if they had been grown in the body.

Different types of germ life require different types of media to bring out their proper and full growth. Dr. Salk, in studying the polio viruses over the several years, learned that the best media to grow these viruses was made in the using of the kidneys of monkeys. This has required the importation to our country, principally from India, of many thousands of monkeys.

After the full growth has occurred it is tested to check its action on live animals, monkeys. The chemical is added to the growth in the media to kill it and prevent its further propagation. It now is tested in new culture and in inoculation in animals and if any sign of life in the organisms is found, the chemicals must be added to make certain of the death of the germs with another trial check to be positive that they are dead.

EACH BATCH of vaccine is numbered separately and information pertaining to the chemical added, the number of check tests which were made and the results in each instance are a permanent record against the batch number. It is now diluted to an average concentration of strength, placed in vials, measured for dosage; all this under absolutely surgically aseptic precautions. There should therefore be no danger of contamination or infection occurring in the individual who receives the inoculation. When it is used, if a question arises as to its safety, the batch numbers on the containers allow a check up of any particular shipment which can then be withdrawn and checked again by culture and injection into animals.

We might also mention at this time, that in the studies made by Dr. Salk, that a period of one week or longer, after the first injection was necessary to demonstrate any immune or protecting substance in the blood of those who had received their first inoculation. Therefore, in the test group in 1954, comprising some 440,000 children, a second inoculation was given one week after the first, and a third four weeks after the second. Subsequent testing by Dr. Salk caused him to feel that if the period of inoculation was started several months prior to the onset of the polio season, a delay in giving the second inoculation to about four weeks and the third inoculation of booster shot as it was termed might then be given six or seven months later with a higher immune body content in the blood of those inoculated.

IT MUST BE REMEMBERED that in the development of these vaccines and in their utilization, 100 per cent effective protection is not always possible. There are certain variants that arise in the peculiarities of reactions in some individuals that prevent or delay the development of adequate immune bodies. Thus the protective mechanism has not functioned for this small percentage of individuals. Methods are subsequently developed which brings them up to the average.

This is the rationale which is being followed at this present time in the current use of the polio vaccine. There is very little doubt but that every precaution as detailed above has been taken and that the cases of polio myelitis which have occurred after the first injection had already been infected from other sources and were in the course of developing the disease.

(Dr. Goldberg is not practicing medicine at this time and is unable to answer correspondence.)

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

Next Sunday is Mother's Day and I have been sitting here in the cool dawn of a beautiful May day trying to beat out some sort of acceptable rhyme. Something about Mother's Day in a sentimental way. Then I got to cogitating, which means ruminating or thinking in a superior sort of way, and threw myself off the track. Why just honor Mother on the second Sunday in May? Why not all year? Then I thought of a tag line: "What of the other three, sixty four" and the bell rang for the end of the round before I could fit something into that. So, in honor of all Mothers—there'll be no poem today.

I START THIS ESSAY on a sad note. It just occurred to me that this is May 5, 1955. In other words, 5-5-55. That was a pleasant enough thought except that it brought up a corollary thought—it's going to be 11 years, one month and one day, more or less leaving out Leap Years, before we can get a like combination, June 6, 1966, 6-6-66. Wonder what Palm Springs will be like then. Probably extend from the San Bernardino county line to the Colorado. Which is taking in a lot of territory in 11 years. . . . Date Carnegie's advice to a young lady who asked him how to succeed as a private secretary to a business man, was: "Let him know you are determined to show your ability or bust." I pick up the strange things in my reading.

OFFICER NICK MAFF really found an open door the other night. During the routine check-up of business establishments to see if the proprietors and/or help, had made sure that all doors were locked, he took hold of a door knob and gave it the customary rattle. It came off in his hand. . . . The police blotter this week revealed another interesting item. The law was called to the Doll House and arriving there found that the trouble involved a Bob Hope fan who wanted the radio, stage and TV comedian's autograph. He wasn't to be denied until the police told him different. They put him on a bus for Banning, his home. The next day the autograph hunter had to ride the bus back to Palm Springs. To pick up his automobile which he had parked here.

MY THANKS and the thanks of other Desert Sun employees, plus sundry citizens, go to whoever is in charge of putting up pedestrian signs. The other day I voiced the complaint of a reader who said you have to be a combination sprinter and broad jumper to safely negotiate the cross-walk between the Bank of America parking lot and the one on the east side of Indian avenue. There was no pedestrian sign in the walk and the drivers just whammed through. Soon after, a yellow Pedestrian Stop sign appeared there and life is safer on Indian avenue.

WAS TOLD the other day of a fussy customer who went into a pet shop to buy a dog. He was shown a batch of puppies. The customer demurred. "I must have an older dog," he said. When shown the older ones, he objected to their price. Then he saw a puppy in a cage. The owner of the pet shop indignantly said: "I recommend, sir, that if you want a cheaper dog, you go to a used car shop." . . . Was highly pleased last week when reading the Satepost. You may recall that I long have advocated "chain" clothes—cars equipped with movie cameras to put serious traffic violations right on the film. That would be irrefutable evidence. Besides, drivers who play nice now only when they see a white car or motorcycle, would behave all of the time. Because they would know if there was a movie-equipped cop behind them. Well, in the Satepost I read about an Inglewood man who has such a car and goes around making movies of traffic violators. You can't beat that evidence. But I see where some people are protesting radar signs, even if they are in signed areas and the driver is aware of them. I don't believe the freedom to maim is one of the four freedoms.

FOR SEVERAL YEARS, periodically, this column has been wondering in print why Palm Springs doesn't have an entry in the Rose Tournament parade at Pasadena each January 1. Thinking of the hundreds of thousands who see the parade in person and the millions who look at it via television on that day. That's covering a lot of territory, publicity-wise. Perhaps nothing happened because I always waited until late Fall to belabor this typewriter with that thought. So now will mention it in May. Charles MacFarland came up with a good idea this week, bringing the Rose Tournament to mind early. He suggested that Palm Springs put an entry into the parade next year with the Tramway as the theme. He recalled that in one of our Circus parades, Charley Farrell, of the Racquet club entered a float which showed the Tramway. He thought a similar float for the January 1, 1956, parade would certainly let millions all over the nation know. Paging Ray Corliss.

LOOKS LIKE I'm near the end of the column. It took about 20 minutes to write it. Which reminds me of the late Woodrow Wilson once said that it took him two weeks to prepare a ten-minute speech, one week for a half-hour speech and ten minutes for a two-hour speech. Reading over the above, I believe he's right.

The Voice of Broadway

By Dorothy Kilgallen

MARION MARLOWE, just fired by Big Daddy, cheered herself up by setting the date with Larry Puck. They'll tie the knot next week . . . Piper Laurie's father and mother are due in town to make the formal announcement of the starlet's betrothal to Pfc. G. David Schine of Army-McCarthy fame . . . A newly former independent film firm has hired an executive with a long record of pro-Communist activities. They now know, courtesy of a leading veteran's organization which has forwarded a dossier on the fellow his new bosses.

The European travel situation is wild. Try to get an airline booking to London or Paris after June 1—and it's not easy to arrange one before that. The ocean liners are loaded, too. . . . Loretta Young's mysterious ailment finally was diagnosed as localized peritonitis.

Yolanda Saylor, the antique expert, is back from France with the greatest conversation piece she's ever had. It's a 1955 pantaleon of white or-gandy with a frill covering the knee. They're worn instead of petticoats under a full skirt, and create such peek-a-booing at cocktail parties!

Funniest ads in town are those for the Fourth Street Theatre's "Three Sisters." They read: "Three Sisters." With Morris Carnovsky, Roger DeKoven and Philip Loeb. . . . Sarah Vaughan's latest hit, "Whatever Iola Wants" is likely to go to No. 1 within three weeks. Dinah Shore's excellent disc of the same tune is nowhere in comparison.

Barbara Warner's current dancing partner in the plush places is Walter Trautman, a wealthy lad from Atlanta. . . . The Bowery News is seeking executive salesmen. Qualifications: "Prefer someone with spotless social background who has refinement, poise and savoir-faire." . . . The DeMarco Sisters' act may split, with Arlene DeMarco cutting out to become a soloist, a la Patty Andrews.

Eddie Ramshaw, whose "Showstop" on East 52d Street was destroyed by fire last week, received cablegrams from all parts of the globe from fans who want him to start a new club in their particular city. Eddie, who comes from Afghanistan by way of Oxford University, has collected custom-ers from exotic countries in his 30 years as a nitery owner, and could be a success almost anywhere on the travelogue route. The burned room, where Mabel Mercer sang, was the historic site of Frankie's first meeting with Ava.

The Keefe Brasseselles, after many spats and reconciliations, have decided on the divorce courts. Magda Gabor has returned—the ring to Anthony Gallucci, the industrialist. . . . Adlai Stevenson has discouraged the politicians who wanted to put him in the Senate race

NEW YORK CAVALCADE

By Louis Sobol

LAS VEGAS: It is the policy of rival hotel owners here to travel over to new places as they open — a bit of courtesy patronage which does not limit itself merely to picking up the tab for a big party. The unwritten code is that the visiting lads give a bit of play to the tables — and if they drop a grand or two, they figure it a sweeter gesture than sending a big wreath.

Once in a while it doesn't work out that way. It didn't at the opening of the new Nevada Royal when one visiting high exec of a rival hotel, after duly viewing the show and joining in the applause for Helen Traubel moved over to the dice table to donate his blessings and a little money.

He left on an hour later—a heavy winner—some reports putting his winnings as high as $20,000, although I have no verification for that. A highly unethical procedure.

SONJA HENIE still sees a great deal of Liberace—in fact, she came to Vegas for his opening at the new Riviera hotel. But when I asked her blandly when she and Liberace were going to announce their engagement, she retorted: "You must be kidding. He's a nice fellow—but he and I get married? Don't even give it another thought!"

It is difficult to arrive at any close figure in the matter of what the weekly payroll is in Vegas hotels. Liberace is reported drawing a cool $50,000 a week. Helen Traubel's weekly paycheck is in the five figures, too—although, of course, nothing as astronomical as Liberace's. Danny Thomas is another five-figure man and you have Billy Daniels, Joe E. Lewis, Patti Page, dozens of paid chorus girls, orchestra leaders, etc. And the situation is not getting better as the bidding goes higher and higher for the big names. But as long as there is not veto on the gambling, none of the operators here seem too worried although every so often there is talk of organizing, hiring a czar, putting an end to the salaries. No one believes that will come to pass. For performers, the gold rush seems to be here to stay.

WITH THE NEW Riviera hotel virtually a skyscraper, nine stories high amidst buildings which sprawl over acreage but do not raise their noses much above three stories, the citizens here are convinced that Vegas will soon rate with minor metropolises in the matter of tall structures. What has really happened is that footage has gone sky high—and the prices per lot keep going up as more bidders arrive on the scene eager to build motels, hotels, or any sort of shack that might house a gambling casino. In other words, it's beginning to be cheaper to build upward rather than low and across. At least, on what is known as the Strip.

Doodles

"BARTENDER SEEN BY MAN WHO BLEW FOAM OFF BEER"

This idea came to me the other night while I was appearing as a guest on Steve Allen's night-time TV program. I got off to a bad start because I left my eye-glasses off in order to point up my resemblance to Rock Hudson and as I walked on I fell into the orchestra. But I soon got back on stage and wisecracks had the audience snickering so uproariously I could almost hear them. For a finish I drew a Mystery Doodle and the biggest laugh of the evening came when a fan in the Balcony shouted out a title for it. Personally I didn't think it was funny because it was a Doodle about a worm and calling it "Hit the Road You Bum" didn't make sense. But that's Show Business!

Carnation Corner

If you're like me—when a new food is introduced, you want to know every little thing about it. So that's why I'm going to "tell all" about Marbled Mint Fudge Ice Cream—Carnation's newest Treat-of-the-Month!

Marbled Mint Fudge is made with the best of care and ingredients. First comes Carnation De Luxe Vanilla Ice Cream, which is flavored with mint mix made from special non-alcoholic crème de menthe. To make the luscious fudge sauce, Carnation uses only the best Dutch Process Cocoa. The fudge sauce is then marbled through the minty-flavored Ice Cream—and there you have Carnation Marbled Mint Fudge Ice Cream!

Where's the ice cream?

On our block we have a kiddie's birthday nearly every week. Such fun for everyone! If it's your child's turn to entertain soon, try making—

CUTE CLOWNS of single scoops of Marbled Mint Fudge Ice Cream on chocolate cookies. Use ice cream cones for hats, and raisins (or chocolate bits) for eyes, nose, and mouth.

CHOCOLATE MINT CRUNCH made of spoonfuls of Marbled Mint Fudge Ice Cream rolled in chopped nuts. Store in refrigerator freezing compartment and, just before serving, top with chocolate sauce.

(You know what? These two desserts are mighty tempting for grown-ups, too!)

THOU ART GUILTY OF SERVING
LAMB!

Did you know a certain dish we enjoy nowadays was once deliberately prepared as one that people wouldn't enjoy it? It seems that mint sauce was invented about 400 years ago by Englishwomen who were required by law to serve bitter vinegar and mint leaves with every portion of lamb. This law was supposed to discourage the use of lamb and thus conserve British flocks. But the combination of vinegar and mint leaves caught on... and so mint sauce was a favorite accent for lamb, and other dishes, too!

CUPBOARD HINT

Are those slender little bottles of sauce and extracts a nuisance for you, too? Forever tipping over and spotting your shelf paper? Cut an empty Carnation Milk carton about two-thirds of the way down. Wash in sudsy water, rinse well, and allow to dry. Store your often-used bottles inside. They'll never tip!

THE TANG of mint—the richness of chocolate—now Carnation brings these two flavors together in Marbled Mint Fudge Ice Cream. It's de luxe, delicious, divine!

Congressional Report

By Representative John Phillips

Last week I wrote a little about a current pressure campaign, being carried on by some good-hearted ladies of this country, to prevent any reductions in the appropriations for the United Nations, and its subsidiaries. I was sitting here at my Corona, wondering what to write about this week, and on my desk, right in front of me, is a slip of paper with an old Latin proverb on it:

"It is easy to be generous with other people's property." Do you suppose it is only a coincidence that this should turn up this morning? If anyone is worrying that good old Uncle Sam, the softest touch in all history, is not giving enough to the United Nations (which statement has nothing to do with the merits of the UN or its work) let me condense and recite our support, over the years:

The UN itself has received, from all members, $343,601,172; of which the United States contributed $144,238,394. Our percentage has decreased slightly, from 39.89% in 1946 to 33.33% this year.

UNESCO HAS RECEIVED (in addition to the above, of course) $65,063,651, of which the USA contributed $27,191,299. In this organization, our share started at 44.03% in 1948 and is now 33.33% as in UN itself.

We have contributed $21,178,928 to the World Health Organization, of a total of $50,372,225. Our percentage dropped from 38.77% in 1949 to a present 33.33%.

The FAO, about which I wrote last week, and which I want earnestly to keep from the domination of those influential members of the UN, who have never taken a direct interest in its work and have not, up to now, supported it directly, has received a total of $49,020,000, of which the USA has contributed $14,905,467. Our percentage has risen, in this organization, from 25% in 1946 to 30% for the current year.

The ILO (International Labour Organization) has received $50,899,433 and of this the USA has given $21,339,691. The USA contribution increased from 17.53% in 1946, to 25% in 1955.

We contribute 25% of the money, but the British managed to slip in that extra "u". The International Civil Aviation Organization has had $24,129,192, of which we gave $6,941,464. Our share has increased from 11.95% in 1946 to 32.6% for 1955.

The International Telecommunications Union has received $11,399,692, and we gave $1,248,701 of that. Our share for 1955 is only 8.96% and this has changed very little since 1950, in which year we gave 8.04%.

Of course, we ought to do something about the weather, so the World Meteorological Organization has had $1,038,152, in 4 years, of which we gave $169,867. We are giving 11.45% this year, which is about par for that course, as we gave 12.67% in 1952.

I POINT WITH PRIDE to the last of the regular organizations, the Universal Postal Union. It has received $2,689,031 and of this we gave $118,912. Those postal boys are pretty good bargainers, as any Congressman can tell you, and we are contributing this year 4.36% to this fund. The largest percentage was 4.63% in 1946.

All the above adds up to $598,212,548, of which the United States has given $228,332,723, which is not bad for a nation whose dollar has been cut in half, and which already has a per capita debt greater than any of the other contributors to the same funds. But don't go away; there are still more!

We will now take up contributions to "voluntary" and special programs. I only have the figures, for these programs, to include 1953. There should be two additional years, to have them comparable with the ones already given. The first is UNTA, the UN Expanded Program of Technical Assistance, about which I wrote last week, and which is now duplicating, in part, three other programs. This received, in 3 years only, $51,610,380, of which we gave $31,578,833.

The United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA) which for 2 years was called "UN Relief for Palestine Refugees," received, in 5 years, $156,437,753, of which we gave $109,450,000.

THE UN INTERNATIONAL Children's Fund (UNICEF) has had $163,471,042 in 7 years, not including the 2 recent years, for which I do not have figures, and of this the USA apparently gave $54,620,334.

The UN Korean Reconstruction Agency (UNKRA) received $86,289,023, between 1950 and 1953, of which the USA gave $50,750,000.

The UN High Commissioner for Refugee Emergency Fund had $847,908, but I am unable to give the USA share, because we did not begin to appropriate directly until 1954. We took the money from other appropriations.

The International Refugee Organization was in existence from 1947 to 1950, inclusive, or under the UN during that time, and received $412,691,915, of which we are shown to have paid $166,091,457.

All in all, I do not think so the good ladies can stop worrying, and I'll end this letter with another quotation, this one from La Rochefoucauld: "What is called generosity is usually only the vanity of giving; we enjoy the vanity more than the thing given," or perhaps, more simply, just, "The gift without the giver is bare."

Safety Tips

OWN WORST ENEMIES
Motorists are proving to be their own worst enemies.

Crashes involving only one vehicle accounted for 1037 of the 1806 fatal traffic accidents in unincorporated areas of California last year, according to the California Highway Patrol. This total represents 57.4 per cent of all patrol investigated fatal accidents.

"Excessive speed, driving after drinking, drowsiness and inattention at the wheel have contributed to this alarmingly high percentage of deaths in single vehicle accidents," commented Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell.

"May was the most dangerous month of 1954 for that class of accident. During the month 64.33 per cent of all fatal accidents in areas covered by the patrol involved only one car," he added.

Further emphasizing the price of individual carelessness the commissioner compared the 1037 one-car fatal accidents to the 662 involving two cars. Fatalities occurred in 85 collisions of three vehicles each, and 22 involved four or more vehicles. One person was killed in a ten-car crash.

"Vehicles leaving the roadway caused 554 fatal accidents, by far the greatest cause of single vehicle deaths. Most of these were due to excessive speed for conditions. Alertness, common sense, and sobriety will help motorists guard against themselves, for they are proving to be their own worst enemies," Caldwell declared.

When you are right you can afford to keep your temper; when you are wrong, you can't afford to lose it.—R. Roy Keaton

A WEEKEND of fun in the sun at Desert Air hotel was enjoyed by these four lovely young women who are seated by the window where they can see the planes landing outside. They are, from left, Ticia Tate of Pacific Palisades, Connie Galland of Hollywood, Selena Seiter of Beverly Hills, and Mardy Hicks of Westwood. Mardy attends Beverly Hills high, while the other three are students at Marlborough.
